Welcome to Sean Henry a seminarian from the Beda College in Rome who is spending the month of September with us for his parish placement, please say hello to Sean.

Coming out of Lockdown – it has been great to see more and more people feeling able to come and join us again for Mass over the last few weeks, we are continuing the gradual process to get back to what will be a ‘new’ normal. Thank you for continuing to make our Church the safe place it is. Please continue to use the hand sanitiser, wear masks and socially distance wherever possible and note that from this weekend:

- We will have music at the 6pm and 11am Mass, 9.30am will continue to be a quiet Mass
- Children’s Liturgy will resume hopefully in a couple of weeks
- Tea & Coffee will be served after the 11am Mass (If you are willing to help please see Fr Phil or Tony Mossman).

Parish Co-ordinators – meet with Fr Phil every two months to review parish life and plan for the future, please see the notice in the porch with the details of the co-ordinators. The next meeting is this Tuesday 7th September if you have anything that you want discussed at the meeting please see/contact Fr Phil or one of the coordinators this weekend.

Season of Creation events 1st September to 4th October

At Masses this weekend we are celebrating the Season of Creation. Please leave your harvest offerings for Wirral Food Bank in the entrance porch. Garden produce donations are on the table at the back of church to share and cash donations for Wirral Food Bank are welcome. After each Mass, you are invited to look around the church garden and find out what has been achieved and what is planned. Season of Creation | CAFOD Interfaith climate action meeting on Tuesday 7th September 10-12noon in church, with our Cool Wirral Faiths4Change partners.
